Description :

PDF-27dfc | "During the course of my journey, many of the people I met in Pakistan and India expressed a curious combination of affection, indifference, and animosity toward their neighbors across the border. . . . The border divides them but it is also a seam that joins the fabric of their cultures."On 15 August 1947, in what some have argued was the final, cynical act of a collapsing empire, the British left... Amritsar to Lahore: A Journey Across the India-Pakistan Border
