Description :

PDF-d208f | When Holli Bassin's daughter, Rachel was still a baby, she developed severe allergies to milk, eggs, mustard and more. For years the protocol was strict avoidance; the family had a responsibility for Rachel's life, and her diet was carefully regimented. Any popsicle, school lunch or granola bar could cause an anaphylactic reaction. After years of struggling with these food allergies, Rachel's ... From Anaphylaxis to Buttercream: The amazing story of how one mother helped her daughter work through life threatening food allergies
