Description :

PDF-40ec0 | Under the New Jersey State Constitution as interpreted by the State Supreme Court in 1975 and 1983, municipalities are required to use their zoning authority to create realistic opportunities for a fair share of affordable housing for low- and moderate-income households. Mount Laurel was the town at the center of the court decisions. As a result, Mount Laurel has become synonymous with the debate ... Climbing Mount Laurel: The Struggle for Affordable Housing and Social Mobility in an American Suburb
