Description :

PDF-22534 | Once a haven for pirates, 67 sleepy islands and cays off the Honduras mainland are now a budding ecotourism destination. The clear, warm waters are home to every fish species found in the Caribbean, as well as most hard corals, gorgonians and sponges. Renowned for wall diving, the region also boasts several wrecks, shallow reefs and fascinating blue-water sites. Visitors can swim with dolphins, wh... Diving & Snorkeling Honduras' Bay Islands
